

~Community Heritage Individual Award~
The Credits 2017 Nominations

Ann Holmes

Ann Holmes has been a valuable member of the Streetsville Historical Society for 22 years. Throughout that time she has logged thousands of hours and worked tirelessly to catalogue much of the information which the society relies on for research.

Dorothy Tomiuk

Dorothy Tomiuk is a citizen-activist who has worked as a participant, presenter, promoter and planner of community events and projects to improve the urban fabric of Mississauga; Dorothy continues to engage residents in the celebration of this city's past, present and future.

Joe Zammit

Joe Zammit has worked for many years on various community projects. He is currently Vice Chair of the Museums of Mississauga Advisory Committee (MOMAC) and is also working with the City on a project to commemorate the closure of the Avro Arrow plant in 2019.