

~Cultural Heritage Group Award~ The Credits 2018 Nominations

Arabic Cultural Club of Ontario (ACCO)

Founded in 1999, The Arabic Cultural Club of Ontario (ACCO) is a not-for-profit volunteer-based organization of Arab-Canadians working to promote our culture and heritage as a part of the Canadian fabric and to encourage its members to be engaged in Canadian society. They also host the Lebanon Pavilion at Carassauga celebrating their culture and traditions with visitors.

Chinese Association of Mississauga

The Chinese Association of Mississauga is a registered charitable organization founded in 1982. They preserve and perpetuate the traditions of Chinese culture by sponsoring literary, musical and other educational and cultural events. They also offer language training to ensure newcomers have a successful integration into Canadian society. For the past 33 years, the Chinese Association of Mississauga has run the China pavilion at Carassauga. From a small group of dedicated people, to over 100 volunteers, it's an incredible exhibition of Chinese art, food, history and culture.

ICNA Relief Canada

ICNA Relief Canada is a non-profit organization focused on helping make the integration of citizens of Mississauga within Canadian society an easy process. It provides social services for all ages including career building workshops, youth development events, seminars, international initiatives, relief field efforts, arts events, cultural festivals and community events, and provides a women's shelter (Maryam home) for victims of domestic abuse.