

~Mississaugas of the New Credit Cultural and Heritage Award~

The Credits 2017 Nominations

Sarah Bale (Ecosource)

Sarah is the Program Coordinator for an Ecosource program “Travelling the Credit” which centres on Indigenous voices leading workshops on the history and ecology of the Credit River. Sarah has worked to ensure the success of the program which encourages indigenous and non-Indigenous youth to work together as environmental stewards of this great natural resource.

Susan Robertson

Susan Robertson has led the development of the Credit Valley Trail initiative, building relationships with community stakeholders and First Nations leaders, to develop a trail strategy, and Indigenous Experience plan. The Trail from Port Credit to Orangeville, will share the river’s hidden stories, enhance learning and grow the Greenbelt. This legacy project will identify hiking and cycling routes and promote the natural and cultural destinations of the river along the way.