

~Volunteer Heritage Award~ The Credits 2018 Nominations

Edna Toth

Edna is a journalist and long-time resident of Mississauga. A Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medalist, winner of the Peel United Way Community Builder Award, and Mississauga's 31st Citizen of the Year (Gordon S. Shipp Memorial Award, 2011), Ms. Toth has dedicated decades of persistent, energetic and positive advocacy to women, children and families in our city who have limited life opportunities.

Habitat for Humanity Halton-Mississauga

Habitat for Humanity Halton-Mississauga is a community-based, non-profit, faith-based organization working for a world where everyone has a safe and decent place to live. Habitat for Humanity Halton-Mississauga, serves the cities of Burlington, Oakville, Mississauga, Milton and the Halton Hills to ensure hardworking families in need have a safe and affordable place to live.

Janis Alton

Janis is a long-time peace activist in the domestic and international peace movement and she's also a strong voice in promoting our rich history right here in Mississauga. Over the years, Alton has been involved in a number of community efforts including the Christmas Carol Sing in Port Credit and Peel Peacemakers. She's also the founder of the Port Credit Village Project, a non-profit organization whose goal is to enhance the distinctive character of Port Credit through greening and sustainability, heritage and preservation, art, and the development of new ideas and innovation.

Randy Persaud

Randy is a media personality, content creator, community advocate and a Mississauga cultural promoter. Over the years he has contributed his passion and personality to many groups and events in Mississauga. He is on the Board of Directors for the Mississauga Arts Council, Vice Chair of Marketing for Carassauga, and Vice President of Broadening Horizons. Randy is also an ambassador for Mississauga Gives, Bollywood Monster Mashup, Mississauga Fashion Week and advocate for Interim Place.